

Please fill the entire page with art but keep anything really important (like words) inside the little marks on the corners in case the edges of the page need to be trimmed to fit the book and poster.